

Prashini Baily, CRNP, PMHNP
Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner

Prashini is a board-certified Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner specializing in delivering high-quality, and accessible mental health care. She is skilled at using evidence-based practices and has a holistic approach to providing therapeutic care. She has had the privilege to care for patients in South Africa, Saudi Arabia and the United States. Her clinical focus is to provide the best care based on each patient's individual needs and history, carefully considering both childhood and adult challenges. She is dedicated to meet the unique needs and preferences for all ages She has earned an MSN and Post-Masters degree from Chamberlain University.. As a daughter, and mother of two girls brings a deep sense of empathy offering supportive care that recognizes the complexities of mental health challenges. Prashini is skilled in a wide range of mental health conditions, including anxiety, depression, PTSD, bipolar disorder, and ADHD. Her mission is to work closely with patients to support recovery and long-term mental wellness.